

Dear Quiescence Music Student,

A note of appreciation...

Just wanted to tell you how grateful I am that you decided to give my course a try. I know it's different than most of what's out there, but the fact that you like this gives me hope.

This summer is the usual for me and my wife Lynn. We live in San Diego so we really have it all here. No need to travel. If I want to go to the beach, it's just a 10 minute drive.

I'm currently working on a new CD project as well! Which is very exciting for me since I haven't put out anything since 2001.

This new CD will be coming out in January 2010 (or hopefully sooner) and you'll be the first to know. It's going to combine solo piano with nature sounds.

Actually ... some of the material on the CD comes from the online lessons. I like some of the material there so I'm "fleshing out" what I like and turning it into a complete composition.

In fact Lesson 116: "Hidden Meadow" will be on the CD - in full form of course.

Finally, I want to wish you a happy and relaxed summer!

Warmest wishes,
Edward Weiss
